“Enjoy playing ‘Curolling’ together ! ”

Do you know a sport, “curolling”? It is like “Curling”. People play “curling” on ice, while “curolling” on a floor. It’s OK, if you participate alone or with your family member or friend! Also, it’s OK, if you play it for the first time, because there are some people who teach you how to play it. You can enjoy playing it with some Japanese team-mates. The winning team will be able to receive a prize.

Time and date : 9:30~11:30 on Sunday, January 25, 2026 (The reception will start at 9:15 a.m. )

Place : the multi-purpose hall (Tamokuteki horu) in Wada regional exchange Center (1992-2, Tajiri, Yaizu) Capacity : about 40 people

Target people : anyone who want to play it.

Application: you can apply for this using the URL or QR code below.
Also, telephone or e-mail application can be available.

■Application for Financial Support for School Expenses (Shugaku enjo no moshikomi) ■

There is a system called as “Financial Support for School Expenses” which can cover a part of the school expenditures like a school supply, school lunch, etc. Targeting families are those who experience financial difficulty in paying school expenditures for the child to attend a public primary or junior high school due to low income, etc. For more information, please contact to the Educational Affairs Division (Kyoiku Somu Ka) below or a school that your child belongs to.

[Targets] Families who fall under either ① or ②:

- ① Families who receive Welfare (Seikatsu Hogo).
- ② Families who experience financial difficulty to a similar degree as those receiving welfare.

[How to apply] Please fill in the “Application form of School Attendance Support” available at public primary school or junior high schools. Then submit it to the school office together with required documents.

[Others] Among those parents or guardians who meet the requirement, ②, if you have a child who will become the first-year student at a primary school or a junior high school and need the financial support to purchase school supplies before your child’s school entry, you should submit the Application Form to the primary school where your child goes at present or will go between Monday, January 5 and Friday, January 23, 2026.
