Some elementary school students draw illustrations for Koho Yaizu

(Shogakusei ga koho no irasuto wo kakimashita)

Some fourth grade students at the Yaizu Nishi elementary school came up with various good ideas that could help more people know “the foreign language versions of Koho Yaizu” in their class. For example, they drew some illustrations for “the foreign language versions of Koho Yaizu”. Those illustrations are exhibited on the first floor in the Yaizu city hall main office.

Also, the comments from the students who drew the illustrations are exhibited with their illustrations together. Please come and see them.

You can see those illustrations and comments on the Website below, too.
